

THE ROLE OF LGMAs IN CLIMATE ACTIONS ON ADAPTATION AND MITIGATION: ITALIAN CASE STUDIES

TUESDAY, 15 NOVEMBER
15:30 – 17:30
ITALIAN PAVILION, AREA D – COP22

The side event aims to describe the role of Local Government and Municipal Authorities (LGMAs) in carrying out mitigation and adaptation actions, within the framework of sustainable development (environmental, economic and social) and in line with the Sustainable Development Goals (11 - Sustainable Cities and communities; 13 - Climate Action). Language: Italian

PROGRAMME

Welcome of participants and introduction to the event (5 minutes)

Stefania Proietti, Mayor of Assisi (Italy)

Local Government and Municipal Authorities in the framework of climate change (10/15 minutes)

Gian Luca Galletti, Minister – Italian Ministry of the Environment and Protection of Land and Sea

International cooperation between cities to enhance local actions on climate change (15 minutes)

ICLEI - TbC

Experiences of Italian Administrations on mitigation and adaptation actions (15 minutes)

Domenico Gaudio, Head of Climate and Atmosphere Service – The Italian National Institute for Environmental Protection and Research ISPRA

Inputs from stakeholders

Opportunities from business sector (10/15 minutes)

Andrea Di Stefano, Manager of Social Projects and Communication of Business Novamont – Novamont

How to enhance the role of LGMAs: possibilities and barriers (10/15 minutes)

Mariagrazia Midulla, Head of Climate and Energy - WWF Italy

The role of cities in the negotiations and the need for an integrated climate governance (10/15 minutes)

Federico Brocchieri, Project Coordinator – Italian Climate Network

Innovation for environment: a message from Assisi, the city beacon to the world (15 minuti)

Stefania Proietti, Mayor of Assisi (Italy)

Q&A session (15 minutes)

Conclusions (5 minutes)

Stefania Proietti, Mayor of Assisi (Italy)